LOADING DELIVERY TRUCKS

TRUE

OR

FALSE?

Master Technicians and Technicians are required to display their badges during Load Out and during Check-In.

TRUE!

Master Technicians and Technicians are required to display their badges to the Driver Manager to receive their route documents. If a Master Technician or Technician does not have their badge, they will not be assigned a route.

WHAT'S IN IT FOR ME?

- Driver Managers have to verify that Master Technicians and Technicians will always have their badges for customer deliveries.
- Meeting our company's compliance standards and always being prepared for a successful audit.
